

James Wilson, AC UK Advisory Board Member (Lecturer in Mental Health, University of Southampton) presenting on:
Forum Theatre demonstration at an Alzheimer Cafe - a new teaching tool for dementia education

Hilary Dyce, Co-ordinator, Farnborough Alzheimer Café, presenting on behalf of Michael Nicholls (Alzheimer Cafe, Guernsey): 'Advantages and disadvantages of small cafes'

Maggie Bennett, Chief Officer for the 7 cafes on the Isle of Wight , presenting about the first Alzheimer Cafe (ACE 7) for people with Early/young onset dementia [ACE 7 stands for - Alzheimer Cafe, Early-onset, 7th cafe on the Isle of Wight]

Some of the guests - Alzheimer Cafe coordinators and committee members

ABOUT DEMENTIA

FOR FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN

written and illustrated by
DR. GEMMA M. M. JONES

After a giving a talk about the “Past, present and future of the cafes”, AC UK Chair, Dr. Gemma Jones, made a presentation of her new book to Maggie Bennett.

“About Dementia: for families with children” (The Wide Spectrum Pubs, 2016)

The dedication is in thanks for Maggie's pioneering work with the "ACE 7, early onset cafe”, and for her “Pop-up Alzheimer Cafe demonstrations" in the hospital, hospice and marketplace - to promote public dementia education.